

First of all, abstinence education is very important if provided in an educational forum. Since many of our young adults are members of one parent families whose family time is limited by being the sole provider and, therefore, unable to provide the ongoing moral and family stability. Because of changes in society, our children can no longer be guaranteed to receive the educational and moral values found in a stable family unit. As professionals responsible for educating our children, we have to go beyond the traditional reading, writing and arithmetic in preparing them for adult life. With this in mind, the need to continue with abstinence education is vital to the development of a moral society.

Secondly, the idea of tax incentives for adoptive parents would help ease the burden for those families who are more than willing to adopt but are not financially able to do so. This would also reduce the cost and the tragedy of long term foster care. The long term financial benefits of such an incentive plan can only benefit those children today and society tomorrow.

In conclusion, I would like to offer Washington County's support on your proposed legislation.

Sincerely yours,
JOSEPH A. FORD, SR., Chairman.
Washington County Board of Commissioners,

CHESTNUT HILL COLLEGE,
OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT,
March 12, 1996.

Hon. ARLEN SPECTER,
U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR SENATOR SPECTER: I am writing to ask you to consider introducing a bi-partisan amendment to restore targeted programs to the Omnibus Appropriations Bill (H.R. 3019). Central to such an amendment is the restoration of the Perkins Loan and SSIG. As you know, thousands of Pennsylvania college students will be affected by decisions governing the future of such financial assistance.

As in the past, I know I can count on your support of private higher education in the Commonwealth and throughout the nation.

I applaud your plan to introduce legislation titled Adolescent Family Life and Abstinence Education Act of 1996 and the Adoption Promotion Act of 1996. I agree wholeheartedly that people on both sides of the abortion issue can work together to promote mutually agreeable alternatives to abortion. Moreover, your observation that the country needs to assess and respond to "leading moral indicators" is cogent, insightful, and timely.

As always, Senator, I respect your ability to cut to the core of issues, to name the problems, and to offer solutions. In addition, I appreciate your balanced approach to public policy. Different viewpoints do not have to divide, rather, they can be starting points for discussions that empower people with varying perspectives to meet on common ground and thereby establish a common agenda that will benefit the citizens of this country.

Thank you for sending me your proposed legislation and for championing causes that I, as a citizen, deeply value.

May God bless you Joan, and your family.

Cordially,

CAROL JEAN VALE, SSJ, PH.D.
President.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF MIFFLIN COUNTY,
Lewistown, PA, March 28, 1996.

Hon. ARLEN SPECTER,
U.S. Senator, Senate Office Building,
Washington, DC.

DEAR SENATOR SPECTER: Thank you for providing me with a copy of the Bill you are planning to introduce under titles of the Adolescent Family Life and Abstinence Education Act of 1996 and the Adoption Promotion Act of 1996.

Adoption Reform is long overdue and perhaps this could be the first step of a change.

It is appalling how many children are raised without loving, caring parents because of our archaic laws. I firmly believe, less costly, more accessible adoption could go a long way in cutting the abortion rates.

I commend you on taking the initiative to address this important issue.

Sincerely,

JIM BECKWITH,
Mifflin County Commissioner.

AMENDMENTS SUBMITTED

THE IMMIGRATION CONTROL AND FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY ACT OF 1996SNOWE AMENDMENTS NOS. 3747—
3748

(Ordered to lie on the table.)

Ms. SNOWE submitted two amendments intended to be proposed by her to amendment No. 3743 proposed by Mr. SIMPSON to the bill (S. 1664) to amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to increase control over immigration to the United States by increasing border patrol and investigative personnel and detention facilities, improving the system used by employers to verify citizenship or work-authorized alien status, increasing penalties for alien smuggling and document fraud, and reforming asylum, exclusion, and deportation law and procedures; to reduce the use of welfare by aliens; and for other purposes; as follows:

AMENDMENT No. 3747

At the end of the matter proposed to be inserted by the amendment, insert the following:

TITLE III—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS
SEC. 301. REPORT ON ALLEGATIONS OF HARASSMENT
BY CANADIAN CUSTOMS AGENTS.

(a) STUDY AND REVIEW.—

(1) Not later than 30 days after the enactment of this Act, the Commissioner of the United States Customs Service shall initiate a study of allegations of harassment by Canadian Customs agents for the purpose of deterring cross-border commercial activity along the United States-New Brunswick border. Such study shall include a review of the possible connection between any incidents of harassment with the discriminatory imposition of the New Brunswick Provincial Sales Tax (PST) tax on goods purchased in the United States by New Brunswick residents, and with any other activities taken by the Canadian provincial and federal governments to deter cross-border commercial activities.

(2) In conducting the study in subparagraph (1), the Commissioner shall consult with representatives of the State of Maine, local governments, local businesses, and any other knowledgeable persons that the Commissioner deems important to the completion of the study.

(b) REPORT.—Not later than 120 days after enactment of this Act, the Commissioner of the United States Customs Service shall submit to Congress a report of the study and review detailed in subsection (a). The report shall also include recommendations for steps that the U.S. government can take to help end harassment by Canadian Customs agents found to have occurred.

AMENDMENT No. 3748

At the end of the matter proposed to be inserted by the amendment, insert the following:

TITLE III—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS
SEC. 301. SENSE OF CONGRESS ON THE DISCRIMINATORY
APPLICATION OF THE NEW BRUNSWICK PROVINCIAL SALES TAX.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—

(1) in July 1993, Canadian Customs officers began collecting an 11% New Brunswick Provincial Sales Tax (PST) tax on goods purchased in the United States by New Brunswick residents, an action that has caused severe economic harm to U.S. businesses located in proximity to the border with New Brunswick;

(2) this impediment to cross-border trade compounds the damage already done from the Canadian government's imposition of a 7% tax on all goods bought by Canadians in the United States;

(3) collection of the New Brunswick Provincial Sales Tax on goods purchased outside of New Brunswick is collected only along the U.S.-Canadian border—not along New Brunswick's borders with other Canadian provinces—thus being administered by Canadian authorities in a manner uniquely discriminatory to Canadians shopping in the United States;

(4) in February 1994, the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR) publicly stated an intention to seek redress from the discriminatory application of the PST under the dispute resolution process in Chapter 20 of the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), but the United States Government has still not made such a claim under NAFTA procedures; and

(5) initially, the USTR argued that filing a PST claim was delayed only because the dispute mechanism under NAFTA had not yet been finalized, but more than a year after such mechanism has been put in place, the PST claim has still not been put forward by the USTR.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Congress that—

(1) the Provincial Sales Tax levied by the Canadian Province of New Brunswick on Canadian citizens of that province who purchase goods in the United States violates the North American Free Trade Agreement in its discriminatory application to cross-border trade with the United States and damages good relations between the United States and Canada; and

(2) the United States Trade Representative should move forward without further delay in seeking redress under the dispute resolution process in Chapter 20 of the North American Free Trade Agreement for the discriminatory application of the New Brunswick Provincial Sales Tax on U.S.-Canada cross-border trade.

"SPECIAL EXCLUSION IN EXTRAORDINARY MIGRATION SITUATIONS

"SEC. 236A. (a) IN GENERAL.—

"(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 235(b) and 236, and subject to subsection (c), if the Attorney General determines that the numbers or circumstances of aliens en route to or arriving in the United States, by land, sea, or air, present an extraordinary migration situation, the Attorney General may, without referral to a special inquiry officer, order the exclusion and deportation of any alien who is found to be excludable under section 212(a) (6)(C) or (7).

"(2) As used in this section, the term 'extraordinary migration situation' means the arrival or imminent arrival in the United States or its territorial waters of aliens who by their numbers or circumstances substantially exceed the capacity of the inspection and examination of such aliens.

"(3) Subject to paragraph (4), the determination whether there exists an extraordinary migration situation within the meaning of paragraphs (1) and (2) is committed to the sole and exclusive discretion of the Attorney General.

"(4) The provisions of this subsection may be invoked under paragraph (1) for a period not to exceed 90 days, unless within such 90-day period or extension thereof, the Attorney General determines, after consultation with the Committees on the Judiciary of the Senate and the House of Representatives, that an extraordinary migration situation continues to warrant such procedures remaining in effect for an additional 90-day period.

"(5) No alien may be ordered specially excluded under paragraph (1) if—

"(A) such alien is eligible to seek asylum under section 208; and

"(B) the Attorney General determines, in the procedure described in subsection (b), that such alien has a credible fear of persecution on account of race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group or political opinion in the country of such person's nationality, or in the case of a person having no nationality, the country in which such person last habitually resided.

"(6) A special exclusion order entered in accordance with the provisions of this section is not subject to administrative review other than as provided in this section, except that the Attorney General shall provide by regulation for a prompt administrative review of such an order against an applicant who claims under oath, or as permitted under penalty of perjury under section 1746 of title 28, United States Code, after having been warned of the penalties for falsely making such claim under such conditions, to have been, and appears to have been, lawfully admitted for permanent residence.

"(7) A special exclusion order entered in accordance with the provisions of this section shall have the same effect as if the alien had been ordered excluded and deported pursuant to section 236.

"(8) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as requiring an inquiry before a special inquiry officer in the case of an alien crewman.

"(b) PROCEDURE FOR USING SPECIAL EXCLUSION.—(1) When the Attorney General has determined pursuant to this section that an extraordinary migration situation exists and an alien subject to special exclusion under such section has indicated a desire to apply for asylum or withholding of deportation under section 243(h) or has indicated a fear of persecution upon return, the immigration officer shall refer the matter to an asylum officer.

CRAIG AMENDMENT NO. 3798

(Ordered to lie on the bill.)

Mr. CRAIG submitted an amendment intended to be proposed by him to amendment No. 3743 proposed by Mr. SIMPSON to the bill S. 1664, supra; as follows:

At the appropriate place insert the following:

SEC. ____ H-2A WORKERS.

(a) Section 218(a) (8 U.S.C. 1188(a)) is amended—

(1) by redesignating paragraph (2) as paragraph (3); and

(2) by inserting after paragraph (1) the following:

“(2) In considering an employer’s petition for admission of H-2A aliens the Attorney General shall consider the certification decision of the Secretary of Labor and shall consider any countervailing evidence submitted by the employer with respect to the non-availability of United States workers and the employer’s compliance with the requirements of this section, and may consult with the Secretary of Agriculture.”

(b) Section 218(b) (8 U.S.C. 1188(b)) is amended by striking out paragraph (4) and inserting the following:

“(4) DETERMINATION BY THE SECRETARY.—The Secretary determines that the employer has not filed a job offer for the position to be filled by the alien with the appropriate local office of the State employment security agency having jurisdiction over the area of intended employment, or with the State office of such an agency if the alien will be employed in an area within the jurisdiction of more than one local office of such an agency, which meets the criteria of paragraph (5).

“(5) REQUIRED TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT.—The Secretary determines that the employer’s job offer does not meet one or more of the following criteria:

“(A) REQUIRED RATE OF PAY.—The employer has offered to pay H-2A aliens and all other workers in the occupation in the area of intended employment not less than the greater of—

“(i) the median rate of pay for similarly employed workers in the area of intended employment, or “(ii) an Adverse Effect Wage Rate of not less than 110 percent of the minimum wage required to be paid under the Fair Labor Standards Act, but not less than $5.00 per hour.

“(B) PROVISION OF HOUSING.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—The employer has offered to provide housing to H-2A aliens and those workers not reasonably able to return to their residence within the same day, without charge to the worker. The employer may, at the employer’s option, provide housing meeting applicable Federal standards for temporary labor camps, or provide rental or public accommodation type housing which meets applicable local or state standards for such housing.

“(ii) HOUSING ALLOWANCE AS ALTERNATIVE.—In lieu of offering the housing required in clause (i), the employer may provide a reasonable housing allowance to workers not reasonably able to return to their place of residence within the same day, but only if the Secretary determines that housing is reasonably available within the approximate area of employment. An employer who offers a housing allowance pursuant to this subparagraph shall not be deemed to be a housing provider under section 203 of the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act (29 U.S.C. 1823) merely by virtue of providing such housing allowance.

“(iii) SPECIAL HOUSING STANDARDS FOR SHORT DURATION EMPLOYMENT.—The Secretary shall promulgate special regulations permitting the provision of short-term temporary housing for workers employed in occupations in which employment is expected to last 40 days or less.

“(iv) TRANSITIONAL PERIOD FOR PROVISION OF SPECIAL HOUSING STANDARDS IN OTHER EMPLOYMENT.—For a period of five years after the date of enactment of this section, the Secretary shall approve the provision of housing meeting the standards described in clause (iii) in occupations expected to last longer than 40 days in areas where available housing meeting the criteria described in subparagraph (i) is found to be insufficient.

“(v) PRE-EMPTION OF STATE AND LOCAL STANDARDS.—The standards described in clauses (ii) and (iii) shall preempt any State and local standards governing the provision of temporary housing to agricultural workers.

“(C) REIMBURSEMENT OF TRANSPORTATION COSTS.—The employer has offered to reimburse H-2A aliens and workers recruited from beyond normal commuting distance the most economical common carrier transportation charge and reasonable subsistence from the place from which the worker comes to work for the employer, (but not more than the most economical common carrier transportation charge from the worker’s normal place of residence) if the worker completes 50 percent of the anticipated period of employment. If the worker recruited from beyond normal commuting distance completes the period of employment, the employer will provide or pay for the worker’s transportation and reasonable subsistence to the worker’s next place of employment, or to the worker’s normal place of residence, whichever is less.

“(D) GUARANTEE OF EMPLOYMENT.—The employer has offered to guarantee the worker employment for at least three-fourths of the workdays of the employer’s actual period of employment in the occupation. Workers who abandon their employment or are terminated for cause shall forfeit this guarantee.

“(6) PREFERENCE FOR U.S. WORKERS.—The employer has not assured on the application that the employer will provide employment to all qualified United States workers who apply to the employer and assure that they will be available at the time and place needed until the time the employer’s foreign workers depart for the employer’s place of employment (but not sooner than 5 days before the date workers are needed), and will give preference in employment to United States workers who are immediately available to fill job opportunities that become available after the date work in the occupation begins.”

(c) Section 218 (8 U.S.C. 1188) is amended by striking out subsection (c) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“(c) The following rules shall apply to the issuance of labor certifications by the Secretary under this section:

“(1) DEADLINE FOR FILING APPLICATIONS.—The Secretary may not require that the application be filed more than 40 days before the first date the employer requires the labor or services of the H-2A worker.

“(2) NOTICE WITHIN SEVEN DAYS OF DEFICIENCIES.—

“(A) The employer shall be notified in writing within seven calendar days of the date of filing, if the application does not meet the criteria described in subsection (b) for approval.

“(B) If the application does not meet such criteria, the notice shall specify the specific deficiencies of the application and the Secretary shall provide an opportunity for the prompt resubmission of a modified application.

“(3) ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATION.—

“(A) The Secretary shall provide to the employer, not later than 20 days before the date such labor or services are first required to be performed, the certification described in subsection (a)(1)—

“(i) with respect to paragraph (a)(1)(A) if the employer’s application meets the criteria described in subsection (b), or a statement of the specific reasons why such certification can not be made, and

“(ii) with respect to subsection (a)(1)(B), to the extent that the employer does not actually have, or has not been provided with the names, addresses and Social Security numbers of workers referred to the employer who are able, willing and qualified and have indicated they will be available at the time and place needed to perform such labor or services on the terms and conditions of the job offer approved by the Secretary. For each worker referred, the Secretary shall also provide the employer with information sufficient to permit the employer to contact the referred worker for the purpose of reconfirming the worker’s availability for work at the time and place needed.

“(B) If, at the time the Secretary determines that the employer’s job offer meets the criteria described in subsection (b) there are already unfilled job opportunities in the occupation and area of intended employment for which the employer is seeking workers, the Secretary shall provide the certification at the same time the Secretary approves the employer’s job offer.”

(d) Section 218 (8 U.S.C. 1188) is amended by striking out section (e) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“(e) EXPEDITED APPEALS OF CERTAIN DETERMINATIONS.—The Secretary shall provide by regulation for an expedited procedure for the review of the nonapproval of an employer’s job offer pursuant to subsection (c)(2) and of the denial of certification in whole or in part pursuant to subsection (c)(3) or, at the applicant’s request, a de novo administrative hearing respecting the nonapproval or denial.”

(e) Section 218 is amended—

(1) by redesignating subsections (f) through (i) as subsections (g) through (j), respectively; and

(2) by adding the following after subsection (e):

“(f) The following procedures shall apply to the consideration of petitions by the Attorney General under this section:

“(1) EXPEDITED PROCESSING OF PETITIONS.—The Attorney General shall provide an expedited procedure for the adjudication of petitions filed under this section, and the notification of visa-issuing consulates where aliens seeking admission under this section will apply for visas and/or ports of entry where aliens will seek admission under this section within 15 calendar days from the date such petition is filed by the employer.

“(2) EXPEDITED AMENDMENTS TO PETITIONS.—The Attorney General shall provide an expedited procedure for the amendment of petitions to increase the number of workers on or after five days before the employers date of need for the labor or services involved in the petition to replace referred workers whose continued availability for work at the time and place needed under the terms of the approved job offer can not be confirmed and to replace referred workers who fail to report for work on the date of need and replace referred workers who abandon their employment or are terminated for cause, and for which replacement workers are not immediately available pursuant to subsection (b)(6).”.

(g) Section 218(g) (8 U.S.C. 1188(g)) is amended—

(1) by redesignating paragraph (2) as paragraph (2)(A); and

(2) by inserting after paragraph (2)(A) the following:

“(B) No employer shall be subject to any liability or punishment on the basis of an employment action or practice by such employer that conforms with the terms and conditions of a job offer approved by the Secretary pursuant to this Section, unless and until the employer has been notified that such certification has been amended or invalidated by a final order of the Secretary or of a court of competent jurisdiction.”.

(h) Section 218(h) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

“(3) No court of the United States shall have jurisdiction to issue any restraining order or temporary or permanent injunction preventing or delaying the issuance by the Secretary of a certification pursuant to this section, or the approval by the Attorney General of a petition to import an alien as an H-2A worker, or the actual importation of any such alien as an H-2A worker following such approval by the Attorney General.”.

KOHL AMENDMENT NO. 3848

(Ordered to lie on the table.)

Mr. KOHL submitted an amendment intended to be proposed by him to amendment No. 3743 by Mr. SIMPSON to the bill S. 1664, supra; as follows:

On page 167, between lines 10 and 11, insert the following:

SEC. 304. MAIL-ORDER BRIDE BUSINESS.

(a) CONGRESSIONAL FINDINGS.—The Congress makes the following findings:

(1) There is a substantial "mail-order bride" business in the United States. With approximately 200 companies in the United States, an estimated 2,000 to 3,500 American men find wives through mail-order bride catalogs each year. However, there are no official statistics available on the number of mail-order brides entering the United States each year.

(2) The companies engaged in the mail-order bride business earn substantial profits from their businesses.

(3) Although many of these mail-order marriages work out, in many other cases, anecdotal evidence suggests that mail-order brides often find themselves in abusive relationships. There is also evidence to suggest that a substantial number of mail-order marriages constitute marriage fraud under United States law.

(4) Many mail-order brides come to the United States unaware or ignorant of United States immigration law. Mail-order brides who are battered spouses often think that if they flee an abusive marriage, they will be deported. Often the citizen spouse threatens to have them deported if they report the abuse.

(5) The Immigration and Naturalization Service estimates the rate of marriage fraud between foreign nationals and United States citizens or legal permanent residents as up to five percent. It is unclear what percent of those marriage fraud cases originated as mail-order marriages.

(b) INFORMATION DISSEMINATION.—Each international matchmaking organization doing business in the United States shall disseminate to recruits, upon recruitment, such immigration and naturalization information as the Immigration and Naturalization Service deems appropriate, in the recruit's native language, including information regarding conditional permanent residence status, permanent resident status, the battered spouse waiver of conditional permanent resident status requirement, marriage fraud penalties, immigrants' rights, the unregulated nature of the business, and the study mandated in subsection (c).

(c) STUDY.—The Attorney General, in consultation with the Commission of Immigration and Naturalization and the Violence Against Women Office of the Department of Justice, shall conduct a study to determine, among other things—

(1) the number of mail-order marriages;

(2) the extent of marriage fraud arising as a result of the services provided by international matchmaking organizations;

(3) the extent to which mail-order spouses utilize section 244(a)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act providing for waiver of deportation in the event of abuse, or section 204(a)(1)(A)(iii) of such Act providing for self-petitioning for permanent resident status;

(4) the extent of domestic abuse in mail-order marriages; and

(5) the need for continued or expanded regulation and education to implement the objectives of the Violence Against Women Act of 1994 in this area.

(d) REPORT.—Not later than one year after the date of enactment of this Act, the Attorney General shall submit a report to the Congress setting forth the results of the study conducted under subsection (c).

(e) CIVIL PENALTY.—(1) The Attorney General shall impose a civil penalty of not to exceed $20,000 for each violation of subsection (b).

(2) Any penalty under paragraph (1) may be imposed only after notice and opportunity for an agency hearing on the record in accordance with sections 554 through 557 of title 5, United States Code.

(f) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section:

(1) INTERNATIONAL MATCHMAKING ORGANIZATION.—The term "international matchmaking organization" means a corporation, partnership, business, or other legal entity, whether or not organized under the laws of the United States or any State, that does business in the United States and for profit offers to United States citizens or permanent resident aliens, dating, matrimonial, or social referral services to nonresident, noncitizens, by—

(A) an exchange of names, telephone numbers, addresses, or statistics;

(B) selection of photographs; or

(C) a social environment provided by the organization in a country other than the United States.

(2) RECRUIT.—The term "recruit" means a noncitizen, nonresident person, recruited by the international matchmaking organization for the purpose of providing dating, matrimonial, or social referral services to United States citizens or permanent resident aliens.

SEC. 313. MAIL-ORDER BRIDE BUSINESS.

(a) CONGRESSIONAL FINDINGS.—The Congress makes the following findings:

(1) There is a substantial "mail-order bride" business in the United States. With approximately 200 companies in the United States, an estimated 2,000 to 3,500 American men find wives through mail-order bride catalogs each year. However, there are no official statistics available on the number of mail-order brides entering the United States each year.

(2) The companies engaged in the mail-order bride business earn substantial profits from their businesses.

(3) Although many of these mail-order marriages work out, in many other cases, anecdotal evidence suggests that mail-order brides often find themselves in abusive relationships. There is also evidence to suggest that a substantial number of mail-order marriages constitute marriage fraud under United States law.

(4) Many mail-order brides come to the United States unaware or ignorant of United States immigration law. Mail-order brides who are battered spouses often think that if they flee an abusive marriage, they will be deported. Often the citizen spouse threatens to have them deported if they report the abuse.

(5) The Immigration and Naturalization Service estimates the rate of marriage fraud between foreign nationals and United States citizens or legal permanent residents as eight percent. It is unclear what percent of those marriage fraud cases originated as mail-order marriages.

(b) INFORMATION DISSEMINATION.—Each international matchmaking organization doing business in the United States shall disseminate to recruits, upon recruitment, such immigration and naturalization information as the Immigration and Naturalization Service deems appropriate, in the recruit's native language, including information regarding conditional permanent residence status, permanent resident status, the battered spouse waiver of conditional permanent resident status requirement, marriage fraud penalties, immigrants' rights, the unregulated nature of the business, and the study mandated in subsection (c).

(c) STUDY.—The Attorney General, in consultation with the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization and the Violence Against Women Office of the Department of Justice, shall conduct a study to determine, among other things—

(1) the number of mail-order marriages;

(2) the extent of marriage fraud arising as a result of the services provided by international matchmaking organizations;

(3) the extent to which mail-order spouses utilize section 244(a)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act providing for waiver of deportation in the event of abuse, or section 204(a)(1)(A)(iii) of such Act providing for self-petitioning for permanent resident status;

(4) the extent of domestic abuse in mail-order marriages; and

(5) the need for continued or expanded regulation and education to implement the objectives of the Violence Against Women Act of 1994 in this area.

(d) REPORT.—Not later than one year after the date of enactment of this Act, the Attorney General shall submit a report to the Congress setting forth the results of the study conducted under subsection (c).

(e) CIVIL PENALTY.—(1) The Attorney General shall impose a civil penalty of not to exceed $20,000 for each violation of subsection (b).

(2) Any penalty under paragraph (1) may be imposed only after notice and opportunity for an agency hearing on the record in accordance with sections 554 through 557 of title 5, United States Code.

(f) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section:

(1) INTERNATIONAL MATCHMAKING ORGANIZATION.—The term "international matchmaking organization" means a corporation, partnership, business, or other legal entity, whether or not organized under the laws of the United States or any State, that does business in the United States and for profit offers to United States citizens or permanent resident aliens, dating, matrimonial, or social referral services to nonresident, noncitizens, by—

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

TRIBUTE TO KEVIN MURPHY, DIANE LONERGAN, DIANE SAWYER, AND BREWSTER BARTLETT FOR RECEIVING THE 1995 PRESIDENTIAL AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN SCIENCE AND MATHEMATICS TEACHING

• Mr. SMITH. Mr. President, I rise before you today to congratulate four outstanding New Hampshire teachers on receiving the 1995 Presidential Award for Excellence in Science and Mathematics Teaching. Kevin Murphy of Milford, an elementary school mathematics teacher at Milford Elementary School in Milford; Diane Lonergan of Merrimack, an elementary school science teacher at Memorial School in Bedford; Diane Sawyer of Portsmouth, a secondary school mathematics teacher at Exeter Area Junior High School in Exeter; and Brewster Bartlett of Loudon, a secondary school science teacher at Pinkerton Academy in Derry were the four deserving recipients of this prestigious award.

The Presidential Awards for Excellence in Science and Mathematics Teaching Program is administered by the National Science Foundation [NSF]. The awards are designed to recognize and reward outstanding teachers from elementary and secondary schools who serve as models for their colleagues and encourage high quality teachers to enter and remain in the teaching field. In addition to the distinguished national recognition that comes with the award, each recipient's school will receive an NSF grant of $7,500 to be used under the direction of the teacher, and to supplement other resources for improving science or mathematics programs in the school system.

The four outstanding recipients of this teaching award will spend a week in May in Washington, DC, for a series of events to commemorate their selection. They will be honored at the U.S. State Department and other organizations such as the National Academy of Science.

There is no more important resource in America today than our school teachers. As a former teacher, I understand the devotion and hard work necessary to be a successful teacher and a positive role model for children. These four outstanding teachers have displayed not only extraordinary talents in their teaching, but have also shown a remarkable level of commitment to their students. I am proud to honor these four exceptional teachers for nurturing the best and the brightest students New Hampshire has to offer. I would like to congratulate Kevin Murphy, Brewster Bartlett, Diane Lonergan, and Diane Sawyer for this distinguished recognition, and thank them for their devotion to students in New Hampshire.●

CONFERENCE AGREEMENT ON THE CONTINUING RESOLUTION, H.R. 3019

• Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, I am pleased I was able to support the conference agreement on H.R. 3019, the 14th and final effort to provide FY 96 funding for the various agencies of the Federal Government, when it passed the Senate on April 25 by a vote of 88-11.

After a long and wrenching struggle, Republicans and Democrats finally reached agreement on the remaining fiscal year 1996 appropriations measures that will fund nine cabinet departments and dozens of agencies for the balance of this fiscal year. These appropriations bills were supposed to have been completed on September 30 last year. Meanwhile more than half of the fiscal year has expired. Hopefully, the exercise we have gone through this appropriations cycle—14 continuing resolutions and 2 long government shutdowns—will not be repeated. It's time to get on with the business of Government and run it in a business-like manner.

Overall, appropriations levels for fiscal year 1996 have been cut by $23 billion. That represents a significant downpayment on reaching a balanced budget over the next 7 years. The dispute concerning these bills was a struggle over priorities. The House bill, as originally passed, made cuts in programs that the President and many of us in Congress believe are critical to the long-term economic and social health of the Nation. While nobody received everything he or she wanted in this long-awaited conference agreement, I commend the conferees for moving significantly closer to the President's position by providing approximately $5.1 billion more than the House originally sought for education, job training, environmental protection, technology, and law enforcement. These increases, which I believe are essential investments in our future, have been fully offset with cuts in other accounts. The lack of certainty about Federal education funding levels was playing havoc with school systems throughout the country. I am pleased that they will now be able to accurately plan their budgets and sign teacher contracts for the next school year.

I would also like to commend the conferees for their efforts to eliminate
